Seria. Numbers Added to List

The following registration cards have been received and assigned serial numbers by the Appomattox County Selective Service Board and are added to the list published last week:

HUGHES—MEGGINSON

Miss Nancy Lougenia Megginson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Megginson, and Delbert Paul Hughes son of Mrs. Raidee C. Hughes, both of Pamplin, were married at the Baptist parsonage in Pamplin, Saturday, October 19. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. M. Black.

The bride was attired in gray, with black accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will make their home in Farmville, where Mr. Hughes is engaged in the electrical business. Members of the two immediate families attended the ceremony.

Shower For Bride

A miscellaneous shower was given as Sears' hall Saturday, October 26, by Mrs W. Gunter, honoring Mrs. Harmon Robertson, a recent bride.

The hall was attractively decorated, using the color echois of white and green. Banked arrangements of pine and chrysanthemums, white candles and wedding bells.

After bursting balloons to find directions, the bride went in search of gifts. Some of the guests assisted her in this.

Refreshments were served, with favors for each.

Afterwards, the wedding cake was cut. A contest was enjoyed during the afternoon, contributing to delightfulness of the occasion.

DeGon - Coleman

Mrs. James Walker Coleman announces the marriage of her daughter, Anne Kemp Coleman, to Dr. Kenneth C. DeGon, on Saturday, October 12, 1940, in New York City.

Mrs. DeGon studied at the St. Louis University, St. Louis, Mo., and attended the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland. At the time of her marriage, Mrs. DeGon was doing research work in the Laboratories of the Jersey City Medical Center.

Dr. DeGon, whose home is in Seattle, Wash ngton, is now stationed with the United States Public Health Service, New York City. He is an alumnus of the University of Michigan and a graduate of the University of Minnesota Medical School.

Achievement Day Program

The annual achievement day program of the home demonstration clubs of Appomattox county, was held in the high school auditorium here on Friday, October 25, at 7:30 P. M. Mrs. J. T. Hix, chairman of the home-making board, presided. Miss Elizabeth Carmichael, district agent, of Blackstone, addressed the group on "Achievement and Family Living."

The Spout Spring home demonstration club presented a skit on "Spirit of The Home," being directed by Mrs. G. O. McGuffin.

Reports of activities in the county were given by Miss Hilda Jane Cox, of the Farm Security, Mrs. R. W. Jamerson on home demonstration club work, and Mrs. Ernest Rogers on Federation work. Special music was furnished by Miss Sarah Myers.

Miss Ella Smith and W. K. Sizelon, 4H club agents, announced the fourth annual 4H Club Achievement Day program to be held at a later date, which has not been designated at this time.

The program will be presided over by Roy Mann, president of the 4H Club Council, and Miss Ellen Martin, secretary-treasurer. Miss Vivian Clarke, 4H Club Leader, will give the invocation, and Roy Mann will welcome the guests. Ellen Martin will introduce the different clubs in the county and give a report of the year's work.

The Liberty Chapel club will present a skit on "Health," after which a folk dance will be given by the Oakville Junior Club. Carlisle Cox will give a report on the Hampden-Sydney Short Course, and Ellen Martin will give a report on the State Short Course.

Entertainment will be furnished by the following clubs: a stunt about "Foods" by the Stonewall club; a skit, showing shadow pictures, by the Spout Springs club; and a pageant entitled "The Finishing Touch," by the Oakville Senior club. A tap dance will be given by LaVerne Doss.

Shower For Miss Nancy Megginson
